

Diversity & Inclusion in Asia Network (DIAN)

Meeting #2 Exclusive to Member Companies

28 June 2017 | 3 - 5pm (UTC+8)

Hong Kong | Singapore | Dial-in option

The DIAN Meetings are designed to provide opportunities for inspiration, learning, sharing and development of best practice to empower you as an agent of change in your organisation in Asia.

UGRs "Unwritten Ground Rules": What Are They and Why Do They Matter?

Learn from author, thought leader and change agent, Steve Simpson, how UGRs® drive people's behaviours and can be implemented to create real culture change for more inclusive workplaces in Asia.

Click Here to Register!

"Great corporate cultures enable strategic goals to be achieved and fuel employee engagement... create a measurable point of difference in terms of individual and organisational performance. But they don't just happen by chance." – Steve Simpson

Steve Simpson, award-winning speaker, author, thought leader, and change agent on workplace culture and customer service, has created the concept of UGRs®, or 'Unwritten Ground Rules' as a tool to help leaders understand and manage workplace culture.

<http://www.steve-simpson.com/>

Seats are limited! Join in-person Meeting Hubs for offline discussion & networking!

Hosted by:

- Hong Kong – Macquarie, 18/F One International Finance Centre, 1 Harbour View Street, Central, Hong Kong
- Singapore – Dell, Tokyo Room, 1 Changi Business Park Central 1, #08-101 ONE@Changi City, Singapore 486036
- Dial-in option is available

For more information, please click here or contact Balzac Lam.