Winners of the 2016 Hong Kong LGBT Inclusion Awards Announced

Hong Kong, 18 May 2016 – Community Business, a leading not-for-profit organisation promoting responsible and inclusive business practices in Asia, revealed the winners of its 2016 Hong Kong LGBT Inclusion Awards (“Awards”), in 11 different award categories at a Gala Dinner last night in commemoration of the International Day Against Homophobia and Transphobia (IDAHO). Celebrating achievements in promoting equality and inclusion for Lesbian, Gay, Bi-Sexual, and Transgender (LGBT) individuals in Hong Kong, over 300 guests joined the Gala Dinner at the Island Shangri-La Hotel tonight, including business executives and leaders, LGBT advocates and champions, representatives from the British, Canadian and US Consulate Generals and the European Union Office in Hong Kong and Macao, as well as the new chairperson of the Equal Opportunities Commission of Hong Kong.

The Hong Kong LGBT Inclusion Awards are the only awards honouring and celebrating LGBT Inclusion in Hong Kong. Following a strong response in the inaugural year of the Awards in 2015, Community Business introduced a number of important new awards for 2016, expanding the award categories from 4 to 11 to recognise the individuals, companies, and organisations that are adopting a strategic, proactive, impactful and sustainable approach to LGBT inclusion. A total of 100 nominations were received for the 11 award categories this year. To assist with the selection of the final winner for each award, Community Business convened a judging panel comprising an external expert in the relevant field and/or a senior executive from the award sponsor, where applicable, and two judges from Community Business.

“We applaud the award winners for the outstanding work that they are doing in Hong Kong and for Hong Kong,” said Fern Ngai, Chief Executive Officer of Community Business. “Each of these 11 awards acknowledges an important part of the overall effort which collectively makes a better, more inclusive Hong Kong, both in the workplace and in the wider community. We congratulate all finalists who are truly the pioneers, the innovators and the change makers. I can say that on behalf of my fellow judges that we were inspired and impressed by their work and firm commitment to LGBT inclusion. Yet there is much more work to be done. It’s time for change and Hong Kong needs each of every one of us to continue to show leadership and dedication to this cause, inspiring more companies, organisations and individuals to follow.”
